Vegetarian, Vegan, Sustainable

Las Cholitas celebrates the vibrant Bolivian women whose energy and contribution to the wineries and vineyards of the Uco Valley is an invaluable resource. A hugely proud community, famed for their traditional dress and thick, braided hair topped with a Bombín, the famously incongruous bowler hat.

Las Cholitas Malbec, Tupungato 2025

ARB075 AZUL Y BLANCO MENDOZA, ARGENTINA

PRODUCTION

Black Malbec from Tupungato's high, sandy desert soils gives this wine colour and perfume. Crafted with respect for the wonderful fruit we have sourced, gentle extraction techniques are used to capture the vibrant red and blackcurrant fruit flavours which are hallmarks of this variety.

TASTING NOTE

Unoaked, juicy yet structured with the region's black-tea tannins this is a dark, supple joy.

FOOD MATCH

Of course, a perfect match with a thick, juicy steak; this wine would also shine alongside a rich mushroom risotto, roasted vegetables, or a selection of well-aged, hard cheeses.
